

KNOW HOW TO ACCESS COMMUNITY TESTING

South Carolina is working to expand COVID-19 testing in rural areas and minority communities that may have higher risks associated with COVID-19. You can get tested even if you do not have symptoms or feel sick.